EXPERTISE

Alexandre de Weck advises individuals and corporations (in particular, banks and asset managers) and represents them in front of state and arbitral jurisdictions. He is specialized in international commercial litigation and mutual assistance proceedings in criminal matters, as well as in labour law. He also regularly represents his clients in complex enforcement procedures, such as enforcement of foreign awards or judgements, bankruptcies or attachment proceedings.

Alexandre de Weck is, since many years, particularly active in banking and financial litigation and he has a strong experience in this area.
